BEGONIAS

REX

Rex, King of the Begonia Family and rightly named for their colorful leaves. North or East exposure is best. They are strictly shade plants and will grow beautifully in the house in a plant case under Fluorescent lights, outdoors in shade through summer months. Sphagnum moss is an excellent growing medium for all Begonias or use a potting soil of  $\frac{2}{3}$  compost,  $\frac{1}{3}$  leafmold or old sod and charcoal and wood ashes. Good drainage is a must. Do not over water. Feed regularly.
